THE FINAL ISSUE!!

THE LAST ISSUE! Yeah the one you've been waiting for, the last issue, this time its not the last issue? it actually is but you dont care do you, this issue is smaller than normal and it hasnt got a nice glossy cover as i didnt have the time. This mag has been going for a long time and i thought it would be a good to thank everybody that has ever helped in this mag but i shined it as i couldn't be bothered. So anyway dont jump or take those pills its not the end of the world just the end of a little mag called GO FOR IT! it really was a stupid name of a mag wasnt it! One thing is for sure skating is getting bigger and we dont need the E.S.A skate-ing was never meant to be organised. skating is skating. THE BEST.

RIGHT. Lucian at the second Palace comp skated the best we have ever seen him. Turn to page 9 for his interview.

JAM 11TH AUG

All photos are from the the Crystal Palace contest on the 7th & 8th Sept. Which you will read about on the next page.

This contest was held for 2 reasons 1) To hold a contest which had nothing to do with the E.S.A. 2) to raise money for the club. THE STORY IN BRIEF-weather was the worst. The judges were; Billy Smith, Billy Ruff and Mark Lawyer there was to be prelims and then the top 6 go into 2 Jams. This contest bought back Colin Taylor back to competition and on his first prelim run he ripped, 4-5 foot air walks, footed bone airs, gay twists, rad grinds, frontside inverts. the crowd was loving it and the rain still came down. THE JAM-there was only one because most of the skaters were too hurt to carry on. the atmosphere was good the spectators were pushing the skaters it was a rad contest especially as it was only organised 2 weeks before.

Oh shit i've run out of space here's the results though.

- 1) Danny Webster-G&S. TRACKER.
- 2) Steve Douglas-MADRID, INDY.
- 3) Lucian. -Unsponsored.
- 4) Bod. -G&S.
- 5) Phil Burgoyne-GULLWING.
- 6) Colin Taylor-BALLS OUT.

CRYSTAL PALACE JAM '02.

Sep 7th 8th

This contest was the planned E.S.A contest but the E.S.A. fearing to much trouble bottled out of it so again we held are own contest again all money going to the ramp.

The practice session got very heated, snaking was fast and furious as everybody wanted to rip and get themselves going ready for the contest. Bod was at work. Steve Douglas broke his board in practice took 2 rides in the jam then gave up not the happiest person today. Lucian was a standout straight away full on aggression he pushed himself to the max 6ft on everything, Danny was skating good but he didn't seem to push himself it almost looked as he couldn't be bothered. Shithead was up there ripping doing what he does best on edge and being B10 always a crowd pleaser. Phil the man with the style of his own offered rad stunts such as tucklegs, high frontside backside, indy, mute airs along with frontside boneless and as usual the most amazing layback airs ever. The contest was over and the results were read out 1st) Danny Webster. 2nd) Lucian. 3rd) Phil Burgoyne. 4th) Colin Taylor. 5th) Barry Abrook.

Some people were surprised that Danny had beaten Lucian as Danny seemed to be skating safe but doing a lot of tricks. Lucian was not as consistent but what he did he pushed he never held back. I suppose it's a matter of personal preference. Lucian time will be here soon.

THE PLAIN TRUTH.

Brian Shaw is a thief, What was the E.S.A.? Shane Rouse is in love. This is the last issue of GO FOR IT! but who gives a shit. Is Gutterslut a skateboard magazine? If so why? The 'PLAIN TRUTH' skate mag is now out see Billy Smith, well worth a read. Pete Trevor the ~~W~~ Horncastle dicks, and the rest of the E.S.A. slag off Farnborough and Crystal Palace for having lame skate scenes get a grip your shit, you cant skate so you ~~try~~ and publish bullshit in your lame 'skatenews' but you know that the best skating goes on at Farnborough and Palace. Lame Bryan has quit! Sims he is now riding a 'Cherry Bomb' Lee Bryan pro experimental is he serious and if you think that is bad, Brian (thief, long neck spotty, thieving bastard) is also going to get a model. The graphics could be a giraffe stealing a t-shirt and the words saying you are now entering the PUSS ZONE! Rob Able will be getting a model soon. Alan Morrison is now sponsqured that is one of the funiest things i have ever heard that and Lee Bryan & Bryan 'Thief' Shaw getting models. Why don't the E.S.A. f*ck off with there skate news its just a load of crap it has no photos and it is ~~fm~~ full of boring crap which has nothing to do with skating.

!EXTRA* Rob Able gets a pro model. (it cost him £10 and all he got was a hand shan -dy)
